

Call for Papers

7th International Conference on Appropriate Technology (7th ICAT)

November 23-26, 2016

Mosi Oa Tunya (Victoria Falls), Zimbabwe

Sustainable Technologies to Empower Communities – Bridging Theory and Practice

The 7th ICAT will:

- 1) Promote Appropriate Technology (AT) knowledge creation, documentation, sharing and transfer to support practice grounded in sound theory
- 2) Focus on AT contributions that will empower communities while remaining environmentally sustainable, particularly amongst historically oppressed communities.
- 3) Provide a forum for networking on AT solutions for the 21st century through mechanisms and models to achieve sustainable well-being for all.

For more information visit the 7th ICAT website: <http://www.appropriatetech.net>

Submit abstracts and papers to www.appropriatetech.net

Deadline for Receipt of abstract for full paper, poster and/or project: May 15, 2016

Notification of decision on abstracts for papers, posters & projects: June 1, 2016

Deadline for full papers: July 15, 2016

Notification of decision on papers, posters & projects: Sept 10, 2016

Format of Abstracts, Papers, Posters and Projects

Abstracts for full papers, posters and project presentations are being accepted and reviewed. Abstracts & full papers will be double-blind peer reviewed. Abstracts must be between 200 and 500 words. Please denote paper category upon abstract submission and indicate if abstract is for full paper and oral presentation, poster or project.

Paper categories

Green Economy and Innovation	Construction and Infrastructure	Environment and Agriculture	Knowledge and Technology Transfer
Energy	Health	Water and Sanitation	Policy, Standards, and Ethics

ORGANIZING SPONSORS

National University of Science and Technology, Bulawayo, Zimbabwe

International Network on Appropriate Technology (INAT)