

NATIONAL DIPLOMA: JOURNALISM

Qualification code: NDJR01 - NQF Level 6

Campus where offered

Soshanguve North Campus

Important notification to new applicants:

Students who intend to enrol for this qualification for the first time in 2017 or thereafter, should note that it will not be possible to continue with any Baccalaureus Technologiae as from 2020, since it is being replaced by qualifications aligned with the newly-implemented Higher Education Qualification Sub-Framework. Potential students are advised to consult the University's website for any new qualifications which might not be published in this Prospectus.

REMARKS

a. Admission requirement(s) and selection criteria:

• FOR APPLICANTS WHO OBTAINED A SENIOR CERTIFICATE BEFORE 2008:

Admission requirement(s):

A Senior Certificate or an equivalent qualification with English or Afrikaans with a C symbol (second language) or a D symbol (first language) at Higher Grade. The Head of the Department may, in exceptional cases, permit applicants who do not comply with all the language entry requirements to take part in the selection process.

Recommended subject(s):

Geography and History at the Higher Grade.

Selection criteria:

- Selection of all prospective students is based on a computerised potential assessment. Applicants who are successful in this will be invited for interviews.
- General knowledge and language proficiency are extremely important in journalism and special emphasis will therefore be placed on these attributes during selection.
- Applicants are advised to prepare themselves accordingly by, for example, reading books on journalism and the political system in South Africa, reading newspapers regularly, and consulting professional journalists on the nature and requirements of the profession.
- All applicants should contact the Department of Journalism of the University by telephone, by August of the year preceding the year of proposed study, to make arrangements for selection.

• FOR APPLICANTS WHO OBTAINED A NATIONAL SENIOR CERTIFICATE IN OR AFTER 2008:

Admission requirement(s):

A National Senior Certificate with a bachelor's degree or a diploma endorsement, or an equivalent qualification with an achievement level of at least 4 for English. Applicants will receive an additional credit point for a pass in any of the recommended subjects listed below.

Recommended subject(s):

A third language, Geography, History and any art-related subject (e.g. Dramatic Arts, Music).

Selection criteria:

To be considered for this qualification, applicants must have an Admission Point Score (APS) of at least 22.

Assessment procedures:

Applicants who meet the minimum requirements will be invited for the selection process, which includes a departmental questionnaire and possibly an interview.

- Preference will be given to applicants with a performance level of 5 or more in English.
 - General knowledge and language proficiency are extremely important in journalism and special emphasis will therefore be placed on these aspects during selection.
 - Applicants are advised to prepare themselves accordingly by, for example, reading books on journalism and the political system in South Africa, reading newspapers regularly and consulting professional journalists about the nature and requirements of the profession.
 - All applicants should contact the Department of Journalism of the University by telephone, by August of the year preceding the year of proposed study, to make arrangements for selection.
- b. Minimum duration:
Three years.
- c. Presentation:
First two years: day classes. Third year: block-mode classes and work-integrated learning.
- d. Intake for the qualification:
January only.
- e. Exclusion and readmission:
See Chapter 2 of Students' Rules and Regulations.
- f. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), equivalence and status:
See Chapter 30 of Students' Rules and Regulations.
- g. Re-registration:
Students may re-register for the subject Media Practice III only with the permission of the Head of the Department. The purpose of the re-registration is to provide students with an opportunity to complete incomplete projects.
- h. Equipment:
Students who have been selected should note that cameras are compulsory for the subject Photojournalism I. However, students should not buy cameras before the lecturer concerned asks them to do so.
- i. Promotion:
A student may carry over modules or subjects to the following year, provided that such modules or subjects fit in with the timetable, or that the Department of Journalism is prepared to make special arrangements.
- j. Additional rules:
Students should take English at A level, as well as a second language at A level. The Head of the Department may, due to previous subject selections, make other proposals and arrangements regarding the latter. The qualification is presented as a package and the University reserves the right to limit or alter subject selections and combinations, should they, for example, lead to uneconomical class groupings.
- k. Media Practice III (Work-Integrated learning):
See Chapter 5 of Students' Rules and Regulations. Students may not register for Media Practice III if they are repeating more than three subjects.
- l. Subject credits:
Subject credits are shown in brackets after each subject.

Key to asterisks:

- * Information does not correspond to information in Report 151.
(Deviations approved by the Senate in August 2005 and SENEX on 20 September 2007.)
-  Subject is not compulsory for obtaining the qualification. However, the Department strongly recommends that students take this subject to prepare and equip them for the labour market.
