SUBJECT INFORMATION (OVERVIEW OF SYLLABUS)

The syllabus content is subject to change to accommodate industry changes. Please note that a more detailed syllabus is available at the department or in the study guide that is applicable to a particular subject. On 01 September 2017, the syllabus content was defined as follows:

D

DISSERTATION: PERFORMING ARTS TECHNOLOGY (PFG500T/R) DISSERTATION ASSESSMENT (Subject custodian: Department of Entertainment Technology)

The student will be expected to produce research in a chosen field that is in, about, of or through performing arts technology and should contribute to knowledge production in that field. The research problem, its rationale and justification and outcomes will be reported through a dissertation. Should the candidate opt to include a practical component, the outcome of the practical component must be exhibited or presented in a public forum and should comply with the generally accepted norms of research at this level. The research processes and protocol will be controlled by an internal supervisor with whom constant contact is encouraged. In addition, a co-supervisor with expertise in the chosen field of study may be appointed if necessary. (No formal tuition)
