RRETAIL BUSINESS MANAGEMENT I (RBM100T)1 X 3-HOUR PAPER(Subject custodian: Department of Marketing, Supply Chain and Sport Management)

Retailing includes all the activities involved in the sale of goods and services to consumers for their personal, family or household use. Students will acquire an understanding of the wide variety of activities that retailers perform and the many services they render. Because a significant part of each retail rand spent pays for those retailing activities, students will learn to become more astute shoppers. In addition, they will learn how retailing fits into the broader scope of marketing and how it plays an important role in the total business system. Students will see the positive effect that retailing has on the South African economic system, i.e. gross domestic product, providing jobs and delivering one of the highest standards of living in the world. (Total tuition time: ± 96 hours)

RETAIL BUSINESS MANAGEMENT II (RBM200T)1 X 3-HOUR PAPER*(Subject custodian: Department of Marketing, Supply Chain and Sport Management)

This subject focuses on the diverse career opportunities available in retailing, addressing the broad spectrum of options that exist for the aspiring retailer. It covers all the issues relating to a retailing career, such as being a retail business owner, manager of an enterprise or an employee in a retailing business. This includes the status of retailing today, factors to take into consideration when planning for the external environment of retailing, the key decisions that should be made to ensure a successful retail strategy, ways to ensure profitability, and to what extent retailing is a rewarding career to pursue. (Total tuition time: ± 96 hours)

RETAIL BUSINESS MANAGEMENT III (RBM300T)1 X 3-HOUR PAPER*(Subject custodian: Department of Marketing, Supply Chain and Sport Management)

The world of retailing has changed to such an extent in recent years that a fresh new approach is needed. South Africa has become part of the global village. This means that every retailer is affected by global sourcing. Buyers search the world for quality goods at the lowest possible price, assisted by efficient global logistics and distribution providers who keep the cost of getting the goods to the store or distribution centres low. The approach at this level is very specific and focuses on global aspects of retailing. This subject, therefore, introduces students to the global aspects of retail competition and global opportunities, as domestic markets become more saturated and the impact of globalisation on the retail practice is felt. (Total tuition time: ± 96 hours)
