MODULE INFORMATION (OVERVIEW OF SYLLABUS)

The syllabus content is subject to change to accommodate industry changes. Please note that a more detailed syllabus is available at the department or in the study guide that is applicable to a particular module. At time of publication, the syllabus content was defined as follows:

F

FINE AND APPLIED ARTS STUDIO PRACTICE (FAS108G/R)

PROJECT ASSESSMENT

(Module custodian: Department of Fine and Studio Arts)

Fine and Applied Arts Studio Practice is an elective that enables the student to specialise in an appropriate Fine and Applied Arts creative practice, such as Ceramics, Fibre Arts, Glass, Painting, Printmaking, Sculpture, or Surface Design. Cross disciplinary is encouraged. Practical work created in this module (whether artistic experimentation or product development), can form the basis of the research project of the Research Methods in Fine and Applied Arts II module. (Total tuition time: ± 150 hours)

R

RESEARCH METHODS IN FINE AND APPLIED ARTS II (RFA108G/R)

PROJECT ASSESSMENT

(Module custodian: Department of Fine and Studio Arts)

Students are equipped for an academic, theory driven research stream if they wish to pursue further studies, but the module also caters to candidates who wish to focus on practice-based research and who wish to directly apply such research to their practical work. The outcome of this module is a research proposal. (Total tuition time: ± 60 hours)

V

VISUAL THEORY II (VTH108G)

1 X 3-HOUR PAPER (OPEN BOOK)

(Module custodian: Department of Fine and Studio Arts)

A broad spectrum of theoretical approaches and philosophies to facilitate a deepened understanding of the role of the visual and applied arts in society. The module furthermore enables the candidate to contextualise her or his artistic practice against this discourse. (Total tuition time: ± 60 hours)
