

Bursary Opportunity

Are you a first-year student enrolled for a degree in Commerce, Engineering, Science or Technology at a public South African university?

And you do not qualify for an NSFAS-administered bursary?

Yet, your combined family income is below R600,000 per year?

Please complete this online form if you want to be considered for a “missing middle” bursary sponsored by the FirstRand Foundation Trust:

<https://forms.office.com/r/Bc8B6z8rEN>

Closing date: 8 May 2022

StudyTrust has been appointed by FirstRand Foundation Trust (FNB, RMB, WesBank) to administer the bursaries.

The FirstRand Foundation was established in 1998 as the legal vehicle through which FirstRand Limited and its major franchises (FNB, RMB and WesBank) direct their individual and collective corporate social investment. From inception, the FirstRand Foundation received 1% of FirstRand Limited’s net profit after tax (NPAT).