

D2L Brightspace Learning Management System

Brightspace Release Notes

#29

Brightspace releases monthly updates which enhance the performance of the system as the online teaching and learning platform.

Q: Why do we have these monthly Release Notes?

A: To alert academic staff about major and minor updates to products, specifically updates likely to affect lecturers and students' experiences.

Q: How will I know when the Release Notes are available?

A: A direct link to the Release Notes will be published on TUT Webmail every month. Alternatively, request the link, from your Faculty Instructional Designer as indicated in the Table below.
